

Document Intelligence - Architecture

Cross-cutting: environment configuration, controlled exceptions, stage logging and timestamps.

POST processes synchronously. GET and dashboard read the latest completed database result by filename. Original uploads are not retained.

External dependency boundaries: Tesseract executable and provider credentials/model. Local implementation and supplied processing verified; extraction completeness and deployment remain pending.